

Vanni : A place to be visited to believe!

Dr S Thava Seelan

My wife and I were initially apprehensive visiting Vanni as we weren't sure what to expect. However our visit has given us more than I can begin to put into words. We were pleasantly surprised to see a complete civil administration in place. The system in place is efficient, incorruptible and friendly. We in fact felt more at ease in Vanni than in Jaffna.

The people we have had the privilege to work with we have found to be truly inspirational. From our fellow health care professionals in the field to administrative staff, volunteers we have come across have such enthusiasm for the work, mainly due to the fact that everyone sees the absolute need for what we are trying to do.

There aren't sufficient services and the obvious need makes our role easier.

Perhaps Vanni saw the worst of the conflict during the past several years, resulting in loss of hundreds and thousands of lives, displacements, destruction of properties and created a downturn economic growth. The population in this region is distributed over a vast remote area of land and there's a severe lack of accessibility to towns and virtually nil telecommunications. We travelled the length and breadth of Vanni and served in many remote areas such as Pooneryn, Akarayankulam, Mankulam, Mullaitivu and Puthukudiyiruppu.

Majority of the people over here are farmers who cultivate mainly paddy along with onion, chillies and tropical vegetables. During the war people had been displaced many times within the region and from the Jaffna peninsula having been made into a socially and financially disadvantaged population. The influx of displaced people and refugees into farming and fishing communities strains services and facilities beyond breaking point.

Since early 2002, when the peace process was initiated, Vanni started progressing though at a slow phase, towards a daunting task of nation building. What we still see in Vanni after two years of peace is the basic needs of the population are yet not met. Killinochchi now is the major economic centre and the main commercial area and administrative buildings are situated on the A-9 (Kandy-Jaffna) road, which was repaired hurriedly after the peace initiation, still evidently showing many potholes.

The current health status in Vanni is very poor although there's a very well structured health system utilising the available barely minimal resources, is being implemented. The secret of this surviving health system is because of the dedication of the health care workers; majority whom are locally trained.

The victims of the conflict are many and include refugees directly displaced by the war and a wider group traumatised by the effect of the war. One of the major health problems is psychological health. From anxiety, depression to post-traumatic stress disorder – the list is huge. The wound is healing slowly but the scar remains. The demand for mental health and counselling services for this group is increasing.

Apart from psychological health issues, chronic medical problems such as diabetes, and asthma are prevalent in this region. Unfortunately there aren't adequate monitoring or treatment options available. Patients don't have home monitoring glucometer and they rely on antiquated inaccurate method of checking the urine for sugar. For asthma it's almost impossible to get either preventive or relieving puffers, even if it's available in the major centres like Killinochchi the price is exorbitant, a Ventolin puffer costs about Rs250.00 and a seretide costs about Rs1200.

Apart from the shelled-out and ruined buildings, the grim reminders of war, the parentless children, patients with disabilities caused by the war, are disheartening sight.

Children and adolescents of both sexes aged from 4 months to 20 years are housed in many "Illam"s in Vanni region and they are lovingly looked after by the many dedicated responsible souls. Many of these illams are depended on funds from Tamils residing overseas and other NGOs.

Recently there has been an emerging health issue of motor vehicle accidents, which occur particularly on A9 (Kandy-Jaffna) road, due to increasing vehicular movements and speeding drivers, despite strict traffic rules being imposed in selected areas.

Killinochchi is busy once again with emerging new buildings, restaurants, administrative offices, NGO's, Sports ground etc. A place and its people which saw one of the bloodiest battles not long ago, is now today proudly opening its arms in a welcoming embrace to share enriching experiences.

Our impression of Vanni has given us the inspiration to motivate like-minded individuals to contribute. It's a place that has to be visited to believe. The warm nature, and hospitality of the Vanni people, their motivation and enthusiasm to move forward and determination to regain their lost productivity are impressive and they yearn to rebuild a once proud land with the open invitation to one and all to lend a helping hand. These impressions are purely based on the current ground situation witnessed by us, in an unbiased manner.

Dialouge with Dr. Thangarooban - An Incident with KP

எங்களுடைய மாதாந்த (மார்ச் மாதம்) ஒன்று கூடலின் போது கனடாவில் இருந்து வருகை தந்திருந்த பழைய மாணவன் வைத்திய கலாநிதி தங்கருபன் அவர்களுடன் பல பழைய விடயங்களை பேசி மகிழ்ந்த போது பல சுவையான பழைய அனுபவங்களை பரிமாறிக்கொண்டோம் அவற்றில் ஒன்றை உங்களுடனும் பகிர்ந்து கொள்ளுவது நல்லது என எண்ணிக் கொண்டேன்.

ஒருநாள் திரு தங்கருபனும் அவர் நண்பர் ஒருவரும் இனி என்ன நாளைக்கு கல்வி பொது தராதரப்பரீட்சை இன்று நாங்கள் லீவு எடுத்து வீட்டில் நின்று படிக்க வேண்டும் என எண்ணி அன்று பாடசாலைக்கு போகாமல் நிற்போமென கூறி அம்மா இன்று நாங்கள் பாடசாலைக்கு போக வேண்டிய தேவை இல்லை என்களிற்கு படிப்பதற்காக விடுமுறை இன்றைக்கு விட்டு இருக்கிறார்கள் எனக்கூறி துணைக்கு நண்பரையும் நிறுத்திவிட்டார். அன்று படிப்பும் இல்லை விடுமுறையும் இல்லை நண்பருடன் வேடிக்கையாக ஏதோ கெட்டித்தனம் செய்துவிட்டதாக இருக்கும் வேளை.....

எட்டு முப்பது மணிபோல ஒரு வாட்டசாட்டமான மனிதர் வீட்டுக்கதவை தட்ட அம்மா ஆரோ கதவைதட்டுகிறார்கள் பாருங்கோ என கதவை திறக்க, அம்மாவும் ஜயா உங்களை எனக்குத் தெரியவில்லையே யார் நீங்கள், நீங்கள் எதற்காக வீடு தேடி வந்திருக்கிறீர்கள் வாருங்கோ இருங்கோ என வந்தவர் நான்தான் உங்கள் மகன் படிக்கும் பாடசாலையின் அதிபர், தங்கருபனை பார்க்க வேண்டும் என சொல்ல....

அம்மாவோ படபடத்து அதிபர் வரும் அளவிற்கு மகன் ஏதோ செய்துவிட்டான் போல இருக்கு என பதபடத்து மகனே இங்கு வா என பதறி ஓடி வினவ.....

அதிபர் வேறுயாரும் அல்ல திரு பூரணம்பிள்ளை அவர்கள் தான், உங்கள் மகனும் அவர் நண்பரும் இன்று பாடசாலைக்கு வரவில்லை. அவர் நண்பரும் வரவில்லை என கண்டேன் அதனால் தான் இங்கு வந்தேன் படிக்க கூடியவர்கள் இப்படி நிற்கக் கூடாது எனச் சொல்லி பத்தரை மணிக்கு சிறு இடைநேரம் வரும் அதற்கு முன் தங்கருபன் நீர் அங்கு நிற்க வேண்டும்

என சொல்லி இதே நிகழ்சியை நண்பர் வீட்டிலும் சொல்லிவிட்டு போய்விட்டார்

அம்மாவோ படபடத்து ஓடிப்போய் ராஜாமணியின் வாகனத்தை பிடித்து தங்கருபனையும் நண்பரையும் உடனேயே அவசரமாக அனுப்பி வைத்த சுவையான நிகழ்ச்சியை கூறி.....

இப்படி எல்லாம் ஒவ்வொரு மாணவனை பற்றிய பெயர், வீடு எங்கே இருக்கு, ஓ இவர் இரண்டு பேரையும் காணவில்லை இதில் ஏதோ சூது இருக்கு என எண்ணி, வீடு வந்து கூட்டிச்சென்று படிப்பிப்பது போன்ற விடயங்களை அவர் அப்ப செய்ததனால்தான் நாங்கள் இப்படி வரக்கூடியதாக இருந்தது என நன்றி கூறி.....

அதனால் தான் இன்றும் நாம் திரு பூரணம்பிள்ளை என்றால் மதிப்பும் கல்லூரிக்கு மரியாதையும் அதன் போக்கில் தொண்டு செய்ய விருப்பும் இருப்பதாக பெருமைப்பட்டு கொண்டார்

வைத்திய கலாநிதி தங்கருபன் சொல்ல கேட்டது. பாஸ்க்கி (பாஸ்கர ஜோதி)

Back From the Grave

An old man and woman were married for years, even though they hated each other. When they had a confrontation, screaming and yelling could be heard deep into the night. The old man would shout,

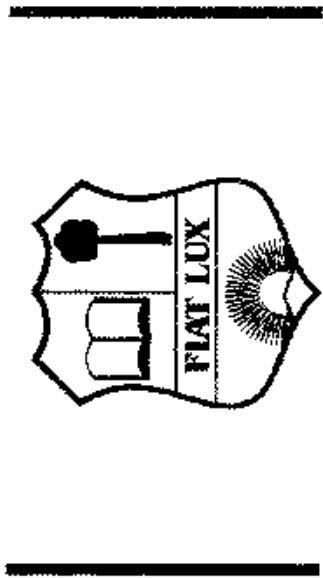

"When I die, I will dig my way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life!"

Neighbours feared him. They believed he practiced black magic because of the many strange occurrences that took place in their neighbourhood. The old man liked the fact he was feared. The old man died suddenly and the women had a closed casket at the wake. After the burial, she went straight to the local bar and began to party as if there was no tomorrow.

Her neighbours, concerned for her safety, asked, "Aren't you afraid that he may indeed be able to dig his way up and out of the grave and come back and haunt you for the rest of your life?" The wife put down her drink and said, "Let the old bastard dig. I had him buried upside down.

10 Parents & Guardians :

Please call for the Report Book from your son/ward at the end of every term, and note carefully his progress. If he does not do satisfactorily, or as well as he is able to, advise me by appointment, and find out what can be done to make him do better. If you do not take timely action, he may not be promoted at the end of the year, and it will then be useless to add that an entry will be presented.

It is also in the interests of your son/ward that he take part in all possible extra-curricular activities.

Some Management Lessons

Parable Number 1:

A crow was sitting on a tree, doing nothing all day.

A small Rabbit saw the crow, and asked him, "Can I also sit like you and do nothing all day long?"

The crow answered: "Sure, why not."

So, the rabbit sat on the ground below the crow, and rested.

All of a sudden, a fox appeared, jumped on the rabbit and ate it.

Management Lesson:

To be sitting and doing nothing, you must be sitting very, very high up.

Parable Number 2:

A turkey was chatting with a bull. "I would love to be able to get to the top of that tree," sighed the turkey, "but I haven't got the energy.

"Well, why don't you nibble on some of my droppings?" replied the bull. They're packed with nutrients."

The turkey pecked at a lump of dung and found that it actually gave him enough strength to reach the first branch of the tree. The next day after eating some more dung, he reached the second branch.

Finally after a fourth night, there he was proudly perched at the top of the tree.

Soon he was promptly spotted by a farmer, who shot the turkey out of the tree.

Management Lesson:

Bulls might get you to the top, but it won't keep you there.

Parable Number 3:

A little bird was flying south for the winter. It was so cold; the bird froze and fell to the ground in a large field.

While it was lying there, a cow came by and dropped some dung on it. As the frozen bird lay there in the pile of cow dung, it began to realize how warm it was. The dung was actually thawing him out! He lay there all warm and happy, and soon began to sing for joy.

A passing cat heard the bird singing and came to investigate. Following the sound, the cat discovered the bird under the pile of cow dung, and promptly dug him out and ate him!

Management Lesson:

1) Not everyone who drops s on you is your enemy.

2) Not everyone who gets you out of s is your friend.

3) And when you're in deep s, keep your mouth shut!

Parable Number 4:

The boy rode on the donkey and the old man walked. As they went along, some people remarked, "It was a shame the old man was walking and the boy was riding".

The man and boy thought maybe the critics were right, so they changed positions.

Later, they passed some people that remarked, "What a shame, he makes that little boy walk."

They decided they both would walk! Soon they passed some more people who thought they were stupid to walk when they had a decent donkey to ride. So they both rode the donkey.

Now they passed some people that shamed them saying "How awful to put such a load on a poor donkey".

The boy and man said they were probably right so they decided to carry the donkey. As they crossed a bridge, they lost their grip on the animal and he fell into the river and drowned.

Management Lesson:

If you try to please everyone, you will eventually lose your ass.

Management training

An Indian walks in to a cafe with a shotgun in one hand and a bucket of buffalo manure in the other. He says to the waiter, Me want coffee. The waiter says, Sure chief, coming right up.

He gets the Indian a tall mug of coffee, and the Indian drinks it down in one gulp, picks up the bucket of manure, throws it into the air, blasts it with the shotgun, and then just walks out.

The next morning the Indian returns. He has the shotgun in one hand and a bucket of buffalo manure in the other. He walks up to the counter and says, 'Me want coffee.' The waiter says, Whoa, Tonto. We're still cleaning up your mess from the last time you were here. What the heck was that all about, anyway? I am in training for a management position. Come in, drink coffee, shoot sh * t, leave a mess for others to clean up, and disappear for the rest of day.
